Justice Knight Aug 9 19

Season 1 Episode 6

Fusion of Justice

Justice Knight, Krysta (his lawyer from the first episode), and Yuio are in Justice Knight's lair looking over information on screens. Justice Knight said, “King Arcturus must have well planned this out. It looks like he invaded a town in 1966 and then he went back and forth to 1975 where he launched his own casino in Vegas. His reviews seem to be great. We all know something must be up. We must pay a visit to one of these places and learn more clues.” Yuio said, “I can't go to any of those places. I am a large dragon. They will hunt me down for sure.” Justice Knight said, “You are right.” Krysta said, “We need to take a more subtle approach. Maybe one of us could sneak into Arcturus' castle and find his secrets and expose the fact he is a fraud to all those people in 1966 and 1975.” Justice Knight said, “That sounds like a good idea but we need an expert on that time that could help guide us. We need someone that is knowledgeable and that knows how to fight villains.” The wall in the lair explodes and large flying robots enter the lair.

Yuio flames some of the robots down and Krysta throws ninja stars at the robots. They get damaged but they still work. One of them fires a net and it captures Yuio. Yuio said, “Ah, net! I hate these things.” Krysta gets caught in a net too. Justice Knight cuts one of the robots in half and he jabs his sword into another robot and they explode. A robot rushes in and fires a net at Justice Knight and Justice Knight cuts the net in half before it engulfs him. The robots outnumber Justice Knight and Justice Knight uses his time traveler device and he travels to another point in time. The robots take Yuio and Krysta and they take them outside of the lair to a short evil looking figure. The short evil looking figure said, “Well done robots. You caught Justice Knight's friends. It will only be a matter of time before we capture the Justice Knight himself.”

Justice Knight ends up in the San Francisco Park in the year 2000. Justice Knight sees kids playing around and people going about their business. Justice Knight looks at his portable computer and he said, “He should be here somewhere.” Justice Knight sees a box on a tree and he said, “There he is.” Justice Knight grabs a shrink device and he shrinks himself and he lands inside of the box. Justice Knight appears in Captain Fusion's black and red lair. Justice Knight looks around the place. Captain Fusion is in a flying chair and he flies the chair over the Justice Knight. Captain Fusion said, “Impressive isn't it?” Justice Knight said, “I would love to have a lair like this. How did you make it?” Captain Fusion said, “That I cannot tell you. You must have come here for something more than just my lair.” Justice Knight said, “Captain Fusion. You are one of the only people to have ever existed out of billions and billions of people that are worthy of lifting my sword. I need your help.” Captain Fusion said, “People always need my help. Someone somewhere is always in danger.” Justice Knight said, “My arch rival, King Arcturus has set up a nexus in San Francisco in 1966 and Vegas in 1975. I don't know how or why he is doing this but it must not be for something good. You are an expert on that time period and I need your help.” Captain Fusion said, “Since it involves time travel, that means you will bring me right back here at this exact moment in time where we are done, right?” Justice Knight said, “Right.” Captain Fusion said,

“I am up for another blast from the past with a side order of genuine nostalgia.” Justice Knight said, “Come with me.”

Justice Knight and Captain Fusion appear in a dark alley in the year 1966. Justice Knight said, “We are in 1966 and we are at Club Dox. It is a club King Arcturus bought in this time and people seem to love it. King Arcturus has that charm that brainwashes people.” Justice Knight and Captain Fusion enter the club and people dressed in funny costumes sit at tables and they dance around to someone on stage snapping their fingers to something that is not a song. Justice Knight said, “This passes for entertainment?” Captain Fusion said, “It doesn't. I know something is horribly wrong here.” A waitress with triangle eyes goes up to Justice Knight and Captain Fusion. She said, “What do you boys want?” Captain Fusion grabs onto the waitress and he pins her to the wall and he said, “Where's Arcturus?” The waitress said, “He is in the lair room. It is the furthest from the left.” Captain Fusion said, “Thanks.” Justice Knight said, “You know this might be a trap.” Captain Fusion said, “It is and I am just going to go with it.”

Justice Knight and Captain Fusion enter the lair room and they see Arcturus in there with a lot of women around him. Justice Knight said, “Give up, Arcturus!” Arcturus said, “Look, it is Justice Knight and he brought a friend with him. What is your old fart friend going to do? Is he going to bash me with his cane?” Justice Knight draws out his sword. Krysta's voice said, “Justice Knight! I am in here.” Justice Knight and Captain Fusion go to a painting on the wall that Krysta is stuck in. Justice Knight said, “How did you get in there?” Krysta said, “Arcturus teamed up with a mad scientist that claims to know Captain Fusion. He invented a machine that presses people into paintings. Arcturus presses anyone that stands against him into paintings like me. He took Yuio to 1975...” Arcturus grabs the painting off the wall and Arcturus said, “That's enough from you. I am calling the police and I will tell them to get the intruders off my property. Farewell!” Arcturus leaves the room and police enter and they point their guns at Justice Knight and Captain Fusion. Justice Knight cuts the tips of their guns off with his sword. Justice Knight said, “You don't know what is going on and we would like to get out of here.” The leader cop said, “No way. You are not going anywhere!” The leader cop takes out another gun and it fires a rope and it ties up Captain Fusion and Justice Knight and Justice Knight drops his sword and it lands close to Captain Fusion.

Justice Knight and Captain Fusion are sitting on the floor and the cops are yelling rights at them. Captain Fusion (from 1966) enters the scene. Captain Fusion (from 2000)'s eyes go big. Young Captain Fusion looks over this and he said, “The offenders appear to be some generic looking knight with an old man cosplaying as myself. Wait a minute, I know you from somewhere.” Young Captain Fusion gets a flashback of three years earlier in 1963 when he met old Captain Fusion in the Jason and Mason episode, Justice in 63. Young Captain Fusion said, “It looks like you have gone bad. What is this?” Young Captain Fusion points to Justice Knight's sword. Justice Knight said, “Only he who is worthy can lift my sword.” Young Captain Fusion said, “We will just see about that.” Young Captain Fusion tries to lift up the sword and it does not budge at all. Young Captain Fusion said, “What kind of trick is this?” Justice Knight said, “It is not a trick. If you really were worthy of raising my sword, you would cut this rope and let us go.” Young Captain Fusion said, “You know I cannot do that.” Old Captain Fusion uses his foot and he reaches the edge of the sword and he kicks it in the air and Captain Fusion grabs it with his right hand and raises it in the air. Young Captain Fusion said, “Looks like the imposter is worthy of lifting up that fruity sword of yours.” Old Captain Fusion uses Justice Knight's sword to cut the ropes on him and Justice Knight and he gives the sword back to Justice Knight. Old Captain Fusion said, “I will deal with this.” Old Captain Fusion and Young Captain Fusion fight each other. A fight cloud is formed around them and they wrestle each other. Young Captain Fusion said, “How could you be so good at this?” Old Captain Fusion said, “The older you are, the better you get at fighting bad guys.” Old Captain Fusion kicks Young Captain Fusion off him and Young Captain Fusion goes flying and he smashes in the wall where his butt gets stuck there. Justice Knight and Old Captain Fusion escape the scene.

Justice Knight and Captain Fusion go to a diner and Justice Knight shows Captain Fusion information from his portable computer. Justice Knight said, “It looks like Krysta was right. It looks like Yuio the dragon is in 1975 somewhere.” Captain Fusion said, “Then we need to go there and rescue your friends and really place a dent in this Arcturus' plan.” Justice Knight and Captain Fusion look at the TV in the bar. Tom Watts is on the screen with DDD News. Tom Watts said, “Hello, I am Tom Watts of DDD News. Last night, a bar run by the neighborhood chairman, Arcturus was attacked by a man dressed as a knight and an old guy dressed as Captain Fusion. These are photos of the men.” Photos of Justice Knight and Old Captain Fusion are displayed on the screen. Tom Watts said, “It seems that this Captain Fusion imposter was even able to defeat the real Captain Fusion.” The screen shows Young Captain Fusion and he said, “I don't know how an old man like that could be so good at fighting. I will train and next time we meet, he will be brought to justice.” Old Captain Fusion looks at the screen and he said, “I think we better get out of here.” Justice Knight said, “We will travel now. We need to do it in a place where no one will see us.”

Justice Knight and Captain Fusion go into an alley and they travel into Vegas in 1975. They ride on a tour bus and they see the flashy streets. They get off at a casino called the, Arcturus Casino and it has a giant Arcturus head on it. Justice Knight and Captain Fusion enter the place. They see people playing slot machines and losing. They see people playing roulette tables and losing. Justice Knight said, “It is no surprise that people would always lose in a casino owned by King Arcturus.” Captain Fusion said, “It still would not be a surprise if it were not owned by Arcturus.” Justice Knight and Captain Fusion come across a map and it states that there is an arena in the casino. Justice Knight said, “I have a hunch something is going to go on at the arena.” Captain Fusion said, “Something always goes on at the arena.”

Justice Knight and Captain Fusion take their seats at the arena and they have popcorn and drinks and they watch the arena. An announcer comes on the ground and he said, “We will have Arcturus' pet himself, Phyro the Dragon going against Arcturus' ex-pet, Yuio.” Justice Knight and Captain Fusion look at each other and they see the two dragons enter the fray and they fight each other. Yuio said, “You wouldn't mind playing easy on me, would you?” Phyro said, “There is no such thing as, 'easy' in this place.” Phyro beats the crap out of Yuio and Yuio lies on the spot all beat up. The announcer said, “I hope you did not place any money on Yuio because Yuio is down!” Captain Fusion said, “You got to feel bad for that dragon...” Captain Fusion turns his head to Justice Knight and he sees Justice Knight is gone. Captain Fusion looks at the arena and he sees Justice Knight is in it. Captain Fusion said, “This is not going to end well.” Justice Knight holds his sword out to Phyro the dragon. Justice Knight said, “You will let my friends go or it will be curtains on this casino.” Phyro said, “Maybe it will be curtains on you.” Phyro breathes fire on Justice Knight and Justice Knight blocks the fire with his sword. Justice Knight jumps on Phyro and Phyro jerks back and Justice Knight is thrown into the side of the arena where he crashes into an add for Wrinkley's gum. Phyro rams into Justice Knight and he pushes Justice Knight into the dirt. A whistle is blown and Phyro stands down. Dr. Waxler enters the arena. Captain Fusion's eyes go big and he said, “Dr. Waxler? I thought that guy died, four years ago.”

Dr. Waxler uses his gadgets and he turns Justice Knight and Yuio into paintings. Dr. Waxler looks at Yuio and he said, “Arcturus thought highly of you. I guess you belong in a painting better than in real life. I finally got Justice Knight. This is going to be awesome. Arcturus will be proud.” Captain Fusion sees Justice Knight's sword is still lying on the ground. Captain Fusion jumps into the arena and he grabs the sword. Dr. Waxler sees Captain Fusion and he said, “Captain Fusion. Long time no see. You really let yourself go. You had a head of hair the last time I saw you. You look more like a mad scientist. I guess I really did have an influence on you.” Captain Fusion said, “I know you gave me my power but you must know that Arcturus is just using you. He does not care about you or anyone else but himself and this stupid gaming operation he has going on here.” Dr. Waxler said, “I wouldn't think so either.” More of those robots that attacked Justice Knight's lair at the beginning enter the arena. Captain Fusion slices one down the middle and he stabs another one and it explodes. Captain Fusion fights more of them off and he sees he is outnumbered. Captain Fusion jumps on one and then he jumps off to another one and then onto another one and he jumps to the ceiling where he cuts a hole in it and he escapes.

Captain Fusion is on the roof of the casino and he escapes and Arcturus' robots and men chase after Captain Fusion. Captain Fusion runs into a costume shop and he ends up in a trench coat with a hat that covers his face. Arcturus' forces lose Captain Fusion. Captain Fusion walks down the streets of Vegas and he said, “Justice Knight and his friends have been captured. What more am I going to do? I need him to get back to my time so I am stuck here. Jason and Mason will not be born for another five years. I exist in this time... Wait... I think myself might be my only hope.” Captain Fusion walks to a car show and he sees the Fusion Mobile there. People are bidding on it. The auctioneer said, “This is going for ten dollars. Who wants it for ten dollars. The people bidding don't say or do anything. Captain Fusion enters the crowd and he said, “I will take it.” The auctioneer said, “It is yours then.” Captain Fusion is driving in the Fusion Mobile and he heads for San Francisco.

Young Captain Fusion has over grown hair and he dresses in black goth and he lies on his bed. The door to his room opens and old Captain Fusion enters. Young Captain Fusion said, “Go away. No one is allowed here but me.” Young Captain Fusion sees it is old Captain Fusion. Young Captain Fusion said, “I remember you. You are that old creep that cosplayed as me years back. I thought you were good but then you kicked my butt a few years later. You are you? Why do you keep haunting me? How did you know I am here?” Old Captain Fusion said, “We have a lot to talk about.”

Young Captain Fusion said, “You want me to help you fight a King from a timeless kingdom and Dr. Waxler again? There is no way I am going to do that.” Old Captain Fusion said, “You have to. If we do nothing, King Arcturus is going to eventually rule the world and he will destroy the time space continuum.” Young Captain Fusion said, “I will just ruin everything for everyone like I did a few years ago.” Old Captain Fusion said, “You don't know that for sure. No one knows that for sure. If you would just come with me, you know you would want to change your mind. I am you from the future. I returned to crime fighting and I have two really good friends called, Jason and Mason. You will have another good friend called, Justice Knight.” Young Captain Fusion said, “I have had my fair share of friends. They either leave me or retire or stop caring about me.” Old Captain Fusion said, “Well...” The door explodes and King Arcturus enters Young Captain Fusion's place and he is armed with his sapphire sword. Old Captain Fusion duels Arcturus and Arcturus said, “You are quite the great dueler. Too bad I am better.” Captain Fusion and King Arcturus strike their swords and some more bots enter the scene. Young Captain Fusion sits back as he watches Old Captain Fusion take on the bots and Arcturus all at the same time. Captain Fusion destroys a few of the bots and a bot fires a taser at Captain Fusion and he gets stunned and he falls to the floor. Arcturus places his foot over Captain Fusion. Arcturus said, “Now all the threats to my operation have been dealt with. I can rule the world in two time periods and this will bridge the gap for me to eventually have a network of rulings and I will rule the world in every time period. It will be like I have always existed.” Captain Fusion drops the sword and Young Captain Fusion sees that Old Captain Fusion is in pain. Young Captain Fusion gets flashbacks about him wanting to be a great super hero and him being loved by everyone. Young Captain Fusion sees the ruby sword lying on the floor. Young Captain Fusion grabs it and he fights off the rest of the robots with it and he disarms Arcturus and he gets Arcturus cornered. Young Captain Fusion said, “Surrender now.” Old Captain Fusion said, “Now this is what I want to see.”

Young Captain Fusion handcuffs Arcturus and he is placed in the back seat of the Fusion Mobile. Old Captain Fusion drives them back to Vegas. They enter the casino through a back door and they see hundreds of paintings of hundreds of people. Old Captain Fusion said, “These must be the paintings of people that stood up against, Arcturus.” Arcturus is still handcuffed. Young Captain Fusion said, “You will show us how to free these people or else...” Dr. Waxler enters the scene and he said, “It looks like you came back with two Captain Fusions. I was just expecting the one.” Old Captain Fusion said, “You've dealt with Dr. Waxler more recently. I will let you fight him.” Dr. Waxler said, “This is going to be like old times.” Young Captain Fusion uses Justice Knight's sword and he fights Dr. Waxler. Old Captain Fusion pulls Arcturus to the control room. Old Captain Fusion seats Arcturus at the controls and he said, “Show me which buttons undo the paintings.” Arcturus said, “You cannot undo the paintings. You just need to go back to the time they were made paintings at and stop them from happening.” Captain Fusion grabs onto Arcturus and Captain Fusion said, “I know you are lying. All the great bad guys lie.” Arcturus said, “Okay, you got me there. There's Phyro!” Captain Fusion turns around and he gets hit by Phyro the Dragon. Phyro said, “The Captain is back.” Captain Fusion punches Phyro in the face and he stomps on his snout and Phyro flames Captain Fusion and Captain Fusion falls out of the control room and back into the main hall where Young Captain Fusion is fighting Dr. Waxler. Old Captain Fusion falls on Dr. Waxler and Dr. Waxler gets smashed into the ground.

Young Captain Fusion takes Justice Knight's sword and he drops it on Dr. Waxler so Dr. Waxler is stuck in the ground. Arcturus is at the controls and he controls robot arms to come and grab the Captain Fusions. Old Captain Fusion grabs onto one of the arms and he breaks it and the top of the arm smashes into the control room. Old Captain Fusion runs up the arm and Phyro jumps out and pounds Old Captain Fusion. Young Captain Fusion sees Old Captain Fusion getting pounded by Phyro. Young Captain Fusion sneaks around Phyro and he grabs Phyro by the tail and he swings him around and he is smashed out of the wall and out onto the street. The Captain Fusions enter the control room where they beat up Arcturus and they play with the controls on the control panel. Young Captain Fusion said, “It looks like you can manipulate the size and shapes of the people in the paintings. Old Captain Fusion said, “Just free them already. They have suffered enough.” They play with the controls some more and they find the command that frees everyone from the paintings.

Justice Knight and his friends are freed. Justice Knight said, “I needed to call on someone to help and I guess I picked the right person for the job.” Old Captain Fusion said, “You sure did.” Justice Knight looks at Young Captain Fusion and he said, “I saw you fighting through the painting. You are a great fighter. You should consider returning to crime fighting only now is not the time since there are a lot of people that still hate you. I guess we should take our culprits and get out of here.” They jump on Yuio's back and Phyro gets up and he said, “You are not getting away that easy.” Yuio said, “We will see about that.” Yuio smashes through the casino and Phyro smashes through the casino as the two dragons fight each other. The casino keeps getting destroyed and debris falls and lands on Phyro and Yuio enters a time portal created by Justice Knight and they go through the portal.

Old Captain Fusion is in Justice Knight's lair. Captain Fusion said, “I am glad we saved time and space and returned everyone to their proper time periods.” Justice Knight said, “I couldn't have done it without you. We should do this again some time.” Yuio said, “You two make a great team.” Krysta said, “I heard Captain Fusion was a legend and I guess what I heard was correct.” Arcturus is lying on the floor of his castle and he is all beat up and dizzy.
